Cruisin

On Thursday, July 21, thirteen club members and two guests traveled, in the blinding heat to Ken's Steak and Ribs, in the little town of Amber, OK. The trip was very enjoyable. What can top a great meal with great people? After gorging ourselves, one person suggested a stop at Braums In Newcastle. Eight of us could not resist.

Consuming excellent cuisine with elegance and poise are, Tom & Teresa with guests Bob and Janis Ricks, Eddie & Ruth, Joe & Donna, Mike & Adeline, Jim & Diane, Dale, and Ken & Cecilia.

The next morning, Joe & Donna, Eddie & Ruth, Dale Kosa and Tom Linn met with a Corvette Club at CVS in MWC. We then traveled to the Arbor House Assisted Living facility.

We circled it once and then lined up in front of the building where we were greeted by approximately thirty enthusiastic senior citizens.

One man, Mr. Clark, 92, mentioned that, in the past, he owned a Chevy just like Joe's. If the car wasn't blocked in, Mr. Clark may have made an attempt to talk Joe out of the keys and take the car for a spin.
