December 1 2024 President's Message

Within the last few days, we Americans celebrated Thanksgiving Day with family and friends by sharing time and an abundance of food with one another. Once again we give thanks for our lives, family, country and way of life.

Looking forward to Saturday, we will come together to celebrate Christmas. We will break bread, play a gift exchange game, fill the restaurant with laughter and just simply enjoy time and the wealth of our nation together.

We should also reflect on the birth of Jesus and relationship we have with him as individuals and as a country.

Thank you for being the quality people you are. We are honored to be members of this club and we look forward to seeing you. We hope our members unable to attend are in good health and spirits.

Humbly submitted

Tom M.E. Linn-Lim
