Central Oklahoma Classic Car Club Minutes, April 22, 2023

Club met at the home of Doug and Carolyn Bradshers' for a meeting and a Hawaiian Luau.

Members arrived with side dishes, their contributions for the Luau. Bradshers' and family, including family from North Carolina, cooked the meat and poultry, pig and chicken .

The early arrivals assisted in moving tables and decorations into Doug's shop as "mother nature" turned damp, cold and windy spoiling the picnicking, blowing down the tent, and forcing the party indoors, but that did not stop the party. Carolyn and Doug had found a foursome of Hawaiian dancers to entertain us following the dinner.

Ruby Watts was honored with picture from her memorial service and cake to celebrate her 93rd birthday on this date, April 22.

AMBUS's representatives brought and presented the COCCC 2021 charitable gift, a trike for a teenage girl. AMBUS members worked with the girl and trike to make sure all fitting were modified to meet her needs. Also, the club presented the 2022 donation check to them for another recipient.

A BIG THANK YOU TO DOUG AND CAROLYN, great hosts and chefs.

Next Meeting is May 21th due to Mothers' Day, May 14th.
